

Renée Piane THE LOVE DESIGNER

About Renée Piane

Renée Piane is an international relationship reinvention expert and dating consultant who helps busy, successful people heal their hearts so they can find true love. She is known as the “Love Designer” because she assists people with clarifying their vision and developing an action plan to create the lifestyle aligned with their goals. Renée helps people become the person that will attract their ultimate match. She believes, “the choice a life partner is one of the most important decisions that you’ll ever make”, and advises busy singles to slow down and to avoid rushing into relationships. Her “inside-out” approach entails examining one’s “love lineage” to discover the habits and imprints that people have learned from their families and the unspoken beliefs that may be influencing and holding them back from love. She openly shares her personal journey of how she removed her roadblocks to finding love. With her direct, warm and humorous teaching style, Renée helps people to “Get Real about Love”.

The pioneer and president of Rapid Dating & Networking, she is also a sought-after inspirational speaker and the author of the newly released Get Real about Love—The Secrets to Opening Your Heart & Finding True Love, her second book, and the first in a series of books and products under her Get Real about Love brand. With 20 years of experience in the love industry, Renée has dedicated her life to helping people to find love, and has successfully matched thousands of people with their life partners. Renée was listed by the Wall Street Journal as one of the eight resources for single men in America, and she has been featured in, and on, major media outlets that include CNN, NBC, ABC, the Today Show, MTV, Lifetime, FX, Discovery, the Los Angeles Times, the New York Times, Cosmopolitan, Men’s Health, and many others. She is the featured love coach and partner on www.SinglesAdvice.com, and she was voted iDate’s Top International Dating Coach in 2014.

As a clinical hypnotherapist and a certified practitioner of Neuro-Linguistic Programming and Time Line Therapy, who also has years of experience in the beauty and skincare industries as a cosmetologist, makeover expert and image consultant, Renée’s process begins with the examination of one’s love history, habits and beliefs. She then evaluates how clients present themselves online and in person, and helps them market and rebrand themselves with magical image makeovers and profile redesigns. Through her books, live events, classes, and private coaching, she has advised singles and couples in their 20s, 30s, 40s, 50s and 60s, from various cultures, many of whom went on to find true love. Her life’s work is devoted to educating men and women about how to become fulfilled in their own lives, connecting them with the support they need to develop lasting relationships and spreading more love on the planet.

Renée Piante THE LOVE DESIGNER

Born in Wilmington, Delaware, to a very large, traditional East Coast Italian family, Renée found her passion for matching people at a young age. With her parents in the catering and restaurant business and frequently entertaining in their home, Renée soon discovered that she had a natural ability to introduce and connect people based on their interests and personalities. At the age of 15, she began working in a hair salon, where her cousin mentored her. Together they created an image makeover salon, which produced fashion shows, photo shoots and charity events that became popular with the local media. She also worked with many brides and their families to coordinate their dream weddings, while studying marketing, communications, television production and psychology.

In 1987, Renée moved to Los Angeles to expand her horizons as a hair and makeup artist, image makeover expert and bridal consultant, while pursuing her passion for television and public speaking. Always listening to clients' dating challenges and stories about their frustrations with finding love, Renée began to host events called "Love Works, Community Networking Parties" and produced her Love Works talk show on cable TV. Her audience rapidly expanded and she was invited to teach seminars to single men about understanding women. Working with confused, single men of all ages ignited, Renée to author the book Love Mechanics—Power Tools to Build Successful Relationships with Women, to give them the "prince training" they did not receive growing up. In 2001, she co-created the first non-denominational speed-dating company in the nation, Rapid Dating, and became one of the pioneers of the speed-dating industry.

Renée recently released her book, Get Real about Love—The Secrets to Opening Your Heart & Finding True Love, in which she details the "Love Design" process that integrates her no-nonsense advice, true love stories, rituals, and secret keys and tools, to prepare readers for a sacred relationship. With her Get Real about Love message, Renée helps clients to take charge of their love lives, whether they are married, suddenly single in a dead-end relationship, getting over a broken heart, a bit rusty or new to the dating game.

Although Renée had built a successful career helping others find life partners, her wonder-woman ways kept her too busy to focus on finding true love for herself until she was in her 40s. It took the sudden passing of her mother to slow her down and wake her up to what was most important in life...love. She finally healed her own heart, which helped her develop a powerful process to help people Get Real about Love. It is now her mission to share how people can transform the imprints from their past and finally let love into their lives. Her journey to finding love has inspired many career-driven women and men who have put off finding love.

Renée is now married to the man of her dreams, Joe Campanella, who she met in her 20s at a wedding. Twenty years later, she magically reconnected with him upon returning home after her mother's passing. Renée believes her mother guided her to finding her extraordinary husband. Despite the fact that Joe was in the midst of his second divorce, and lived 3,000 miles away, their serendipitous meeting ignited their hearts. They took time to build a strong foundation and they discovered they were a perfect match by following the Get Real about Love process. Renée and Joe enjoy sharing their love story to inspire people to believe in love, no matter what obstacles they may be facing.

Together, Renée and Joe live with their adorable dog Buddy in Marina Del Rey, California, where they enjoy taking dance classes, going to the beach, bike riding, working out, romantic dates, traveling, concerts, cooking on the grill, and entertaining friends and family. They are both community connectors passionate about making a difference in the world and they support various charities and causes through events they hold.

"I'm here to inspire hearts to stay open, to help people learn how to feel fulfilled, whether single or in a relationship," says Renée "Each moment of life is so precious, so set your intentions and know that by living life with an open heart, anything is possible. You are the creator of your own love story. Be the love you are looking for and love will show up when you least expect it. That's the secret!"
